ORIGIN & HISTORY

A story of oceans and innovation

TIQETS 4.7 ★★★★★ 5 081 reviews

Founded in 1991, Zoomarine Algarve is much more than a simple theme park; it is a monument to the history of Portuguese tourism. Upon its opening, it immediately captivated visitors with its unique duality: a playful water park and a rigorous dolphinarium. This pioneering vision quickly established the site as an essential reference in the Algarve region, attracting families from all over the world.

Behind this success lies a fascinating international story. The park is owned by Mundo Aquático, a company founded by Argentine entrepreneur Pedro Lavia. Under his leadership, the company has expanded its empire beyond Portuguese borders, launching similar projects in Malta and Italy. This international expertise brings a global dimension to the management of the marine species present on site.

The park's evolution has been marked by a constant desire to integrate science into entertainment. In 2002, Zoomarine took a decisive step by opening Porto d'Abrigo, Portugal's first marine species rehabilitation center. This partnership with the Institute for Nature Conservation and Forests transformed the park into a scientific hub where conservation takes precedence over mere spectacle.

The location's fame has even extended beyond the shores of the Mediterranean basin through the arts. In 2003, the park served as the main setting for the famous TVI telenovela 'Saber Amar'. Real dolphins participated in the filming, reinforcing the poetic and lively image of the place. Today, with 500,000 annual visitors, Zoomarine remains a pillar of Algarvian heritage.

THE EXPERIENCE

As soon as you cross the park's gates, the atmosphere changes dramatically. The salty air of the Atlantic Ocean mingles with children's laughter and the crystalline sound of the pools. Modern architecture opens up to lush green spaces, creating a visual bridge between wild nature and urban comfort. You immediately feel that you are entering a sanctuary dedicated to marine life.

The Algarve sunlight dances on the turquoise water of the slides and wave pools. Every step leads to a new discovery, whether it is the silent observation of the large dolphins or the excitement of the shows. It is a total immersion where sensory pleasure meets educational rigor, offering an unforgettable experience for the whole family.

ORGANIZATION

Exploring the park's different spaces

North Zone (Water Park)

This zone is dedicated to family fun, featuring numerous slides and a wave pool. The structures are designed to provide thrilling experiences while ensuring the safety of children from 1 meter in height. The atmosphere is festive, enlivened by water games and entertainment activities. It is the beating heart of the park's physical entertainment.

Central Dolphinarium

At the heart of the complex lies the large dolphin pool, home to 26 bottlenose dolphins. The stands offer an exceptional panoramic view of the daily shows. The acoustics are carefully designed to ensure the trainers' explanations can be clearly heard. This is where the magic happens, blending animal athleticism with scientific education.

Porto d'Abrigo Rehabilitation Center

This quieter, more intimate section is dedicated to conservation. Here, you can observe animals undergoing treatment before their release back into the sea. The space has been designed to be accessible to people with reduced mobility. It offers a unique insight into the scientific work carried out by the park's staff.

ACCESSIBILITY

♿ Disabled Access

Accessible pathways and wheelchair facilities in the main areas.

Must-sees

SELECTION

Must-see highlights

01 Main Dolphinarium

The Great Dolphins Show

It is the park's flagship attraction. The 26 large dolphins perform impressive acrobatic figures under the direction of professional trainers. The choreography is designed to highlight the intelligence and sociability of these animals. Do not miss the end of the show where they interact directly with the audience.

> 💡 This show has been awarded multiple times by the IMATA, the international association of marine animal trainers, confirming its world-class excellence.

02 Rehabilitation Center

Porto d'Abrigo

Inaugurated in 2002, this center is the first of its kind in Portugal. It allows visitors to see wild species in recovery, such as turtles or seabirds. It is a moving visit that concretely illustrates the park's conservation mission. The explanatory panels detail each medical case.

> 💡 The center collaborates closely with the Instituto da Conservação da Nature, bringing strong scientific legitimacy to its interventions.

03 North Aquatic Zone

Wave Pool

A massive installation that simulates the conditions of the Atlantic Ocean. The regularly generated waves allow families to swim and play together. The water is heated to make bathing pleasant even off-season. It is the favorite spot for teenagers to let off steam.

> 💡 The technology used to generate these waves is calibrated to faithfully reproduce the natural currents of the Algarve coast.

04 Adventure Zone

Extreme Slides

For thrill-seekers, this zone offers breathtaking slides. The materials are treated with anti-UV and non-slip coatings to ensure safety. Heights vary to accommodate different age groups. Adrenaline is guaranteed by tight turns and free falls.

> 💡 Some slides are tested every morning by technical teams before opening to the public to guarantee optimal water flow.

05

Small Amphitheater

Seal Show

A moment of pure comedy where the seals display their agility and humor. These mammals are very intelligent and learn their acts quickly. The lighthearted tone of the show is hugely popular with young children. It's an excellent transition before the big dolphin show.

> 💡 The park's seals regularly participate in environmental education programs in local schools.

06

South Wing

Educational Aquarium

An immersive tour showcasing local marine fauna. The thick glass panels allow for close observation without disturbing the fish. Interactive screens explain the life cycles of species endemic to the Algarve. It is an ideal complement for adults curious about biology.

> 💡 The aquarium houses rare specimens that can only be seen in this specific part of the park.

Kids Zone

Jungle Aquatic

A secure space designed for toddlers. The water is shallow and the attractions are sized for them. Bright colors and playful water jets stimulate their imagination. Parents can relax on nearby loungers while keeping an eye on their children.

> 💡 This area was recently redesigned to include elements inspired by tropical flora.

08

East Terrace

Seabird Observatory

A platform overlooking an artificial wetland area. Herons and other birds adapted to the marine environment can be observed here. The atmosphere is peaceful, contrasting with the rest of the park. It is an excellent spot for taking artistic photos.

> 💡 The installation of this observatory has naturally attracted several migratory species every winter.

TIPS

Preparing your visit to Guia

TIMING

Come early in the morning, ideally before 10 a.m., to enjoy the Porto d'Abrigo Rehabilitation Center before the crowds. This will allow you to absorb the educational information in peace.

TICKET

You must absolutely buy your tickets online via visit-tickets.com or the official website. Always check whether your package includes access to the dolphinarium, as some 'park only' tickets do not grant this access.

TOUR

Start with the north sector (water slides) while the kids still have energy, then head to the dolphinarium for the afternoon shows. Save the rehabilitation center for the end of the day when the park is less crowded.

PHOTO

The best time to photograph the dolphins is right after the show begins, when they perform their first high jumps. Avoid using flash during the performances so as not to disturb the animals.

BREAK

Plan a lunch break around 1:30 PM to avoid long lines at the park's restaurants. There are also cheaper fast-food options near the main entrance.

CHILDREN

If you have children under 1 meter tall, prioritize the Jungle Aquatique in the morning. They can then join the main slides in the afternoon once they are more accustomed to the environment.

AUDIOGUIDE

The audioguide is available in French and is essential for understanding the park's scientific mission. We recommend using it at the Rehabilitation Center and in front of the dolphin pools to enhance your visit.

COMFORT

Wear closed-toe, non-slip shoes, as the floors may be slippery. Use the available lockers to store bulky items to make it easier to access the slides.

DID YOU KNOW?

Anecdotes & curiosities

The Argentine origin of the management

Few people know that the park is run by Pedro Lavia, an Argentine entrepreneur. His international vision has allowed for the import of high care standards. This expertise has contributed to making Zoomarine a model in Europe.

A movie actor

In 2003, the park's dolphins starred in the telenovela 'Saber Amar'. Their natural performance captivated the television audience. This episode reinforced the animals' friendly image with the general public.

International awards

Zoomarine has received the IMATA award ten times for the quality of its shows. These international distinctions attest to the professionalism of the teams. They confirm that the park combines fun and respect for animals.

The first rehabilitation center

Opened in 2002, Porto d'Abrigo was the first in Portugal to be exclusively dedicated to marine species. This initiative marked a turning point in national conservation policy. It demonstrates the park's concrete commitment to biodiversity.

AROUND THE MUSEUM

After an intense day at the park, the Guia district offers the ideal setting to extend your holiday. You can stroll through the nearby historic center of Albufeira to admire its typical white architecture. For a refreshing break, the Guia Municipal Park provides a shaded green space perfect for digesting the emotions of the visit. If you are a gastronomy enthusiast, local restaurants serve fresh seafood specialties that perfectly complement the experience. Finally, Praia de Guia, accessible on foot, allows you to end the day with a swim in the Atlantic, thus prolonging the contact with the liquid element discovered at the park.

Leaving Zoomarine means taking with you far more than holiday memories. It is about departing with an acute awareness of the fragility of our oceans and a renewed admiration for these majestic mammals. Whether you came for fun or for science, this day in Guia will remain etched in your memory as an enchanted interlude by the sea.
